

DM

DEIDRE C. MARSHALL

LEADER | EDUCATOR

OBJECTIVE

Position as an online adjunct professor in education, liberal studies, or any other subject in humanities for which I qualify.

SKILLS

I excel in making difficult topics clear and relevant, functioning in a leadership capacity and teaching others to do the same. I stay abreast of current trends in education. I hold myself to high standards and strive for excellence.

EXPERIENCE

DIRECTOR OF CURRICULUM • EARLIMART SCHOOL DISTRICT • JULY 2012 – JUNE 2017

I was in charge of all of the curriculum, instruction, assessment and staff development decisions for the teachers and administrators in the district.

Most notable accomplishments:

- Development of the district’s literacy program that produced growth in state test scores that were well above the state average, and that was a first for this district.
- Leading the district into the new state standards— researching materials, coordinating and leading training, creating and training an ongoing staff development team, monitoring implementation of the new standards

PRINCIPAL • RIALTO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT • JULY 2005 – JUNE 2012

I was in charge of a school of 800 students, 30 teachers and 20 support staff employees. In addition to leading the students to academic excellence, I was in charge of staff and student safety; employee training and morale; conflict resolution with students, staff and parents; building consensus to get goals accomplished; public relations in the community; resource management as well as legal and compliance matters.

Most notable accomplishments:

- California Business Award for Education Excellence Star School. This award is given to high performing schools in high poverty areas with large minority populations.
